BEST PRACTICE

1) ENVIRONMENTAL CONSIOUSNESS (Environmental Society)

The College has an Environmental Society. The environmental society and NSS always involved to clean our College campus as well as regular plantation programme is going on. The medicinal plantation is done in the College campus. The natural resources in College campus with medicinal plants and green house are here. The College always try to give knowledge to the students for utility of the plants for preserving good health and beside that we should try to wake up the sense of the students regarding environmental affairs. Each and every year, the College organizes Seminars on Environmental aspect to grow up the awareness of the students. The College prepared the Environmental Green Audit. We adopted a Village Simulia which is beside our second campus and we also adopted 5 villages under Kemia-Khamarpara Gram Panchayat with the approval of Unnat Bharat Abhiyan for making them as Model Villages. The College authorities do the needful action to save the biodiversity environment of the villages.

2) INNOVATION (Plan of Action Achievements Teaching Learning and Evaluation)

Department of Geography, Department of Political Science, Department of English, Department of Physics and Computer Science, Department of Education and IQAC organized Departmental seminars/Webinars (National and International) for students' benefit on their syllabus oriented topics. We organised 12 Add on Courses. Midterm Test examination (UG LEVEL) and selection test as well as Internal and End Semester Examinations under WBSU were conducted and result was published. M.Sc. in Geography, M.A in Education and Bengali PG examinations were completed and mark sheets were provided in time. Smart class teaching, Virtual Classroom teaching, Online teaching via various online platforms viz. LMS, Google Meet, Google Classroom, Whatsapp etc provided by different Departments. Admission of the new students is smoothly completed. The first Semester (UG and PG) is started in time but most of the classes are conducted through online. Some practical classes are organised in offline mode.
